ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis becomes a reality with the kind support and help of many individuals. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all of them.

First and foremost, I want to offer this endeavour to our God for the wisdom He bestowed upon me, the strength, peace of mind and good health in order to finish this thesis.

I have to thank my thesis advisor Prof. Dra. Anita Lie, MA, Ed.D. Without her assistance and dedicated involvement in every step throughout the process, this thesis would have never been accomplished. I would like to thank you for your support and understanding.

I would also like to show my gratitude to the committee members, Yohanes Nugroho Widiyanto, M.Ed., Ph.D and Drs. B. Himawan Setyo Wibowo, M.Hum. They have raised many precious points in our discussion and I hope that I have managed to address several of them here.

Most importantly, none of this could have happened without my family. I must express my very profound gratitude to my parents and to my sister for providing me with unfailing support and continuous encouragement throughout my years of study and through the process of writing this thesis. This accomplishment would not have been possible without them.

My thanks and appreciations also go to my colleagues and people who have willingly helped me out with their abilities.

I hope that thesis will become a good reference for those who want to research the same novel or analysis.

ABSTRACT

Kusmono, Melissa. 2018. "Moral Values in Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird", S-1 thesis, English Department Faculty of Teacher Training and Education, Widya Mandala Catholic University Surabaya.

Advisor: Prof. Dra. Anita Lie, MA, Ed.D.

Keywords: To Kill a Mockingbird, Moral Values, Harper Lee

Throughout our life, we always learn something either about ourselves or about the environment around us. Every day, we have to deal with our problems. We have to confront those problems and make difficult decisions. These decisions can be simple, but for others, it can raise moral dilemmas. People have value systems that can influence the moral decisions they make. In this thesis, the writer is interested in analysing the moral values from a certain character in the novel To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee. With a problem being raised: What moral values does Atticus Finch represent in the novel To Kill a Mockingbird according to Kohlberg's theory of moral development?

To answer it, the writer used objective theory by Abrams in analysing the intrinsic elements of the novel, and then the writer used the moral dilemmas, the decision that Atticus Finch made, and at what stages did Atticus Finch stand according to Kohlberg's Theory. The writer collected the data by reading the whole novel to get the message of the novel, and then the writer reread it by quoting the narration and dialogue in the novel. With two dilemmas being found, Fairness, Justice, Equality, Bravery, and Compassion are the main points from Atticus Finch's moral values in which he stands at the highest level of Kohlberg's Stages. This study can be a reference for those who seek to read a funny yet touching story, despite dealing with a major issue that is still happening in America and around us. While this study is only limited using Kohlberg theory, for further study, the writer hopes that others can use many other theories in analysing other characters, the sociological aspects affecting today's racism and prejudice, or using another theory to determine whether Atticus Finch is really a god-like-person depicted in the story.
