APPENDIX I

THE EXAMPLE OF DIALOGUES

Topic I : Asking Directions

A : Excuse me. I'm looking for Park Street.

B : Park Street. It isn't far from here.

B : It runs parallel to this street. Just keep walking up this street.

B : Turn left at the first corner, then you'll come to an intersection.

B : Cross over to the other side, then go straight up Garden Drive.

B : Park Street is the first on the right.

A : Thank you. I'm looking for a bank.

B : There are lots of banks on park Street. Do you want to change your money?

A : Yes. Which bank do you suggest?

B : You could try the New City Bank.

B : It's next to the big church.

A : And is there a post office near here?

B : Yes. See that big new shopping centre - there's one on the first floor.

A : Oh, thank you very much.

B : You're welcome.

Topic II : The Climate and the Seasons

A : Have you heard the weather forecast?

B : Yes, it's going to rain today.

A : I thought so. Look at those clouds. We're probably going to have a storm.

B : Does it rain a lot here?

A : Yes, it rains a lot in the winter.

B : But it doesn't often snow. Last year it only snowed twice.

A : Is the summer nice here?

B : Yes, it is. It's hot but not humid.

B : We often get a pleasant breeze, and it hardly ever rains in the summer.

A : How long does the summer last?

B : It lasts about three months.

B : The autumn begins about August. We get very pretty autumn colours here.

A : When does the winter start?

B : It usually starts in November.

B : The weather gets quite cold, and it's sometimes very windy too.

Topic III : Smoking and Your Health

A : Would you like a cigarette?

B : No, thanks. I don't smoke.

A : Don't you? Why not?

B : I think it's bad for your health.

A : You're right. It's a bad habit.

B : Are you a heavy smoker?

A : No, not really.

B : How many cigarettes do you smoke?

A : I smoke about five a day.

B : Does your wife smoke?

A : She used to smoke a lot. But she stopped smoking last year.

A : She's lost a lot of weight. She feels much healthier now.

B : Smoking isn't good for you, but it's difficult to stop smoking.

A : It's an expensive habit. Cigarettes are expensive nowadays.

A : A packet costs seventy cents now. It used to cost sixty cents.

Topic IV : Going For A Picnic

A : What a lovely day for a picnic!

B : Yes, the weather is perfect today.

B : It's not too hot, and there isn't a cloud in the sky.

A : Don't drive too fast. Let's stop and have lunch by the river.

A : There's no one here. Park the car under the trees.

A : Peter, will you bring the lunch basket.

Mary, please put out the plates.

A : Now, who would like some sandwiches?

C : I would. What's there to drink?

A : I brought some tea and orange juice.

C : I'll have orange juice, thanks.

B : Don't leave anything on the ground. We must keep the place tidy.

A : Have you had enough to eat? There are still some sandwiches left.

C : I've had plenty, thanks.

Topic V : At A Petrol Station

A : What would you like?

B : Fill up the tank, please.

B : And could you check the oil. I think it needs some water, too.

B : Clean the windows, please. They're very dirty.

A : Shall I check the tyres?

B : Yes, I think the back tyres need air.

A : Does the car need to be washed?

B : No. It doesn't matter, thanks.

B : Do you have any road maps?

A : Certainly. Where are you going?

B : We want to get to Newport.

A : You'll need map number seven.

B : Follow highway six until Bridgeway. Then turn onto highway seven.

A : You'll see a sign at the crossroads. Have a nice trip.

C : I'll drive from here if you like. You must be feeling tired.

Topic VI : On A Bus

A : Excuse me. Can I sit here?

B : Yes, this seat is free.

A : Where are you going?

B : I'm going to Malacca.

A : Oh, I'm going there too. Do you come from Malacca?

B : No, but my cousin lives there. I'm going to stay there for a few days.

A : Would you like a cigarette?

B : No, thanks. I don't smoke.

B : Are you from Malacca?

A : Yes, I was born there.

A : I work just outside Malacca. I'm a primary school teacher.

B : Are you married?

A : Yes, I got married two years ago.

B : Do you have any children?

A : Yes, I have a baby girl.

A : We're stopping.

B : Let's get some refreshments.

Topic VII : A Business Appointment

A : I am looking for Mr. Mason's office.

B : It's on the fourth floor. Room 418.

C : Good morning. Can I help you?

A : I would like to see Mr. Mason.

A : I telephoned an hour ago. My name is Richards.

C : Please sit down, Mr. Richards. Mr. Mason won't be long.

D : Hello! You must be Mr. Richards?

D : When did you arrive in the city?

A : I got here yesterday.

D : Are you enjoying it here?

A : Oh, very much, thank you.

D : Well, let's talk about business. Did you get my letter last week?

A : Yes, it arrived on Tuesday, and here are the papers you asked for.

Topic VIII : On The Telephone

A : Could I speak to Mr. Kono, please?

B : Who's calling, please?

A : My name is Peter Lee.

B : Just hold the line. I'll see if he's in.

B : I'm sorry to keep you waiting. He isn't in at the moment.

B : Would you like to leave a message, or will you call back later?

A : I'll call back later, thanks.

What time will he be back?

B : I think he'll be back at three.

A : Thank you. I'll try again later.

B : Oh, you are back already, Mr. Kono.

Mr. Lee just called.

C : Did he leave a message?

B : No, he said he would call back later.

C : Were there any other messages?

B : Yes, Miss Kwan called you.

B : She said she will see you tomorrow.

Topic IX : At The Doctor's

A : The doctor will see you in a minute. Would you please come this way.

B : Well, what is your trouble?

C : I'm not feeling well, doctor.

C : I have a sore throat.

B : Have you any aches and pains?

C : Yes, my back aches.

B : I'll take your temperature.

B : How long have you been feeling ill?

C : It began the night before last.

B : You have a temperature, but it's nothing serious.

B : It's probably just the flu. I'll give you a prescription.

B : Take this to the chemist's. Take one tablet every four hours.

B : You should stay in bed tomorrow, and drink plenty of lemon juice.

C : Lots of people are ill at the moment.

B : It's this cold weather we're having.

Topic X : Reserving A Room In A Hotel

A : I want a room in a hotel, a small room that's not too expensive.

B : Do you want a single or a double room?

A : A single room, please.

B : A room with air-conditioning, sir?

A : No. Just an ordinary room, thanks.

B : Well, you can try the Emperor Hotel. The rooms there are five dollars a night.

B : Or you can try the Phoenix Hotel. It's seven dollars a night.

B : It's got a swimming pool, and it also has a very good restaurant.

A : Is the Emperor in the centre of town?

B : Yes, it's in the centre of the city.

B : It's close to the railway station and not far from the shopping centre.

A : Well, that sounds good enough. Could you reserve me a room.

B : Certainly. How long will you be staying?

A : Just for three night.
