Dear Author;

A- the receiver name is not correct in the transfer; it must be a company not a person mohammad othmna nassar; the correct is "Mohammad Nassar for Researches"

B- From what we see within the transfer document; it has the following missing information that may result in rejecting the transfer by our bank:

1- Payment Purpose Code is (0803: Information Technology Services)

C- It is strongly recommended that you contact your bank to make sure that they add that information to the transfer information by sending an amendment (SWIFT amendment) that contains the mentioned information. otherwise, the transfer will be rejected from our bank.

With Best Regards.

Dear Author;

Your paper needs modification regarding references citation within the paper; kindly correct then return based on the following note:

References citation within the paper need to be reformatted exactly according to the IEEE style (more details can be found in the template; template can be downloaded from the journal site). The author name and year for citation should be removed. The reference number from the references list at the end of the author paper (the references at the end of the paper should be numbered) should be used instead. Example on the correct citation “The authors in [2,3] noted that crushed aggregates having angular to sub-angular shaped”. Example on the wrong citation “(nassar,2013) and (Fokianos et al., 2007) noted that crushed aggregates having angular to sub-angular shaped” (nassar,2013).

With Best Regards.

the official amendment printed document shows that they order to add 803 as code which is correct.

the official amendment printed document shows no change requested to receiver name to be "Mohammad Nassar for Researches" . kindly check with your bank since i think they just send the 803 code without changing the receiver name. i did see the form that you fill and see that you did add the name but i think your bank did not notice that they must also send the receiver's name correctly.
