

APPENDIX

Synopsis

Mr. and Mrs. Bennet have five daughters; Jane Bennet, Elizabeth Bennet (as known as Lizzy), Mary Bennet, Catherine Bennet (as known as Kitty), and Lydia Bennet. Since that family only has daughters, automatically as a heritance law their properties will be given to another brother. It takes Mr. Collins to inherit their estate because he is the nephew of Mr. Bennet. That worries Mrs. Bennet the most, because all of her daughters will have no home and fortune. Mrs. Bennet thinks that her daughters must get married with someone from good wealth and good social status.

It is a kind of fate that not too far from their place, Mr. Bingley has rented Netherfield Park. At the ball in Meryton, Mr. Bingley falls in love with Jane and he spends much of the evening dancing with her. His close friend, Mr. Darcy, is less pleased with the evening and arrogantly refuses to dance with Elizabeth. He says that Elizabeth is not beautiful enough to tempt him.

Time flies and Mr. Darcy finds himself increasingly attracted to Elizabeth's charm and intelligence. The two get even more opportunities to snip at each other when Lizzy goes to Mr. Bingley's house to nurse her elder sister, Jane.

When Elizabeth and Jane come back home, they find Mr. Collins visiting their household. Mr. Collins is a young clergyman who stands to inherit Mr. Bennet's property. Mr. Collins has decided that the nice thing to do is to marry one of the Bennet girls in order to preserve their home. Unfortunately, Lizzy sees him as a completely fool man. Unluckily for Lizzy, he sets his sights on her to be his wife. When Elizabeth rejects him, he proposes to her friend Charlotte Lucas, who wants to marry for security rather than love, and they are soon engaged and married. On the other hand, the two youngest Bennet sisters, Lydia and Kitty, they are very like walking to Meryton to see militia officers stationed. There are some officers that they like one of them are Mr. Wickham. Mr. Wickham is a young handsome soldier and becomes Lizzy's friend. Mr. Wickham tells her a lie story about how Mr. Darcy totally ruined his life and Lizzy believes his story.

Lizzy feels so alone in the house because Jane comes to her aunt's house in London to change the air after the departure of Mr. Bingley. Her best friend, Charlotte, lives in her husband's house and she does not have a friend to talk. To get the opportunity to meet her best friend, Lizzy goes to Hunsford to visit Charlotte.

When Lizzy enjoyed her visits, Mr. and Mrs. Collins get invitation from his patron, Lady Catherine de Bourgh, to come to her house. Lizzy knows that Lady Catherine de Bourgh is Mr. Darcy's aunt and Miss de Bourgh is his future wife. For several times, Lizzy comes to Lady Catherine de Bourgh's house to have dinner together. Easter party comes and Lizzy heard about Mr. Darcy's arrival in de Bourgh's house and Lizzy cannot avoid seeing Mr. Darcy because there is a party and Lizzy is invited to come to that party.

In the end, Lizzy knows that Mr. Darcy separated Mr. Bingley and Jane. However, Lizzy is shocked by Mr. Darcy because he suddenly comes to her and he suddenly proposes Lizzy to be his wife. Lizzy absolutely rejects his proposal because Lizzy has two reasons to reject Mr. Darcy. The first reason is about Mr. Bingley who is separated from Jane. The second reason is about Mr. Wickham.

Mr. Darcy leaves the town with disappointed but he gives Lizzy a letter to give her an explanation. He thinks that Jane does not like Mr. Bingley and as his best friend, he suggests him to forget about his love to Jane. About the second accusation, he totally refuses. After reading the letter, Lizzy feels so bad because she realizes how rude she is when she rejects Mr. Darcy's proposal.

Lizzy gets invitations from her aunt and uncle to spend holiday time with them. Her holiday leads her to Derbyshire, the place of Mr. Darcy. Unfortunately, in the end of their tour in Mr. Darcy's place, Lizzy meets Mr. Darcy and Mr. Darcy's sister in Pemberley.

Sadly, Lizzy gets a letter from Jane, which says that Lydia has run away with Mr. Wickham. The desperation of Bennet's family to find Lydia who runs away when she goes to Brighton, but Mr. Darcy finds them first and finishes their problem. They get married because of Mr. Darcy's approval with his money and he gives a living allowance for them. Lizzy knows about that and feels so thankful to him. Mr. Darcy also helps Mr. Bingley to set a proposal for Jane.

In the other day, Lady Catherine de Bourgh comes to Longbourn estate to confront Lizzy because of the issue about Lizzy and Mr. Darcy engagement. The moment of his aunt is coming to Lizzy's home, give hopes to Mr. Darcy about Lizzy's feeling. Before many days had passed after Lady Catherine's visit, Mr. Darcy comes back to Longbourn and asks Lizzy about her feeling. Lizzy says that her feeling has changed and her statement makes Mr. Darcy happy.

Table of Characters

Name	Characters
Elizabeth Bennet	Cheerful, attractive, and brave.
Mr. Darcy	Charming, calm, and Cool.
Jane Bennet	Adorable, beautiful, and positive thinking.
Mr. Bennet	Indifferent and careless.
Mrs. Bennet	Aggressive and ambitious.
Mr. Collins	Absurd and boring.
Charlotte (Mrs. Collins)	Clumsy, nice person, and elderly.
Mr. Wickham	Crafty and selfish.